FOIA Number: 2000-1251-F

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in FOIA 2000-1251-F[1] and FOIA 2000-1251-F [2] are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA 2000-1251-F[1] contains records on federal Native American/Indian policy as found within the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs, specifically the files of Mary McClure and Cliff Alderman. These records consist of incoming letters, memoranda, forms and printed material. Letters include public mail and outgoing form letters concerning White House policy on Indian affairs. Memoranda documents contain routine correspondence between Intergovernmental Affairs, the Bureau of Indian Affairs and other governmental agencies. Personal data sheet forms are from the White House Conference on Indian Education. Printed material included news clippings, information mailed in about various tribes and Native American groups. FOIA 2000-1251-F [2] contains materials on federal Native American/Indian policy. These records consist of incoming letters, memoranda, forms and printed material. Letters include public and congressional mail and outgoing form letters concerning White House appointments related to Native American/Indian policy. Memoranda documents include routine correspondence between Intergovernmental Affairs, the Department of the Interior, and other governmental agencies. Appointment memorandums, personal data statements, and resume forms are from the Indian Gaming Commission, the National Advisory Council on Indian Education, the Joint Federal-State Commission on Policies and Programs Affecting Alaska Natives, and the White House Conference on Indian Education. Printed material included news clippings and articles, reports and summaries from various Native American/Indian/Alaska Native boards and commissions, and presidential proclamations. White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File categories contain correspondence; memoranda; news clippings; and brochures from the general public, Congress, and the Bush administration. The Staff and Office Files contain correspondence, memoranda, and publications maintained by individual staff members and offices. These records consist of public congressional mail and outgoing form letters concerning White House appointments related to Native American/Indian policy.
