Records on Brazil [Quayle Vice Presidential]

FOIA Number: 2004-0736-F

Scope and Content Note:

FOIA 2004-0736-F contains materials from agencies and individuals including the Vice President's Office and the State Department. 2004-0736-F 2 The Staff and Office Files contain correspondence, memoranda, and publications maintained by individual staff members and offices. The majority of the material responsive to this request relates to a trip taken to Venezuela, Argentina, Brazil, and Haiti by Vice President Quayle and Mrs. Quayle. There are a few additional materials relating to one other trip taken to several South American and Caribbean Countries, and one solo trip by Mrs. Quayle to Brazil. There are schedules, briefing material, event summaries, and letters detailing the activities of these trips. Included in the records are briefing book that contain event information and schedules for each stop. Also found in these records are remarks and speeches given at these events. One major aspect of the trip to Venezuela, Argentina, Brazil, and Haiti was a US business sector contingent and there are supporting documents such as biographies of the men and events they participated in while in each nation. There are also papers, reports, and summaries on a variety of issues particular to each country such as Brazil and the environment.

Processed by: Staff Archivists, February 2010. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.
