Records on Timothy E. Flanigan

FOIA Number: 2005-1464-F

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in FOIA 2005-1464-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA 2005-1464-F contains materials relating to the activities of Timothy E. Flanigan. Flanigan, a lawyer from Virginia, was Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General with the Office of Legal Counsel in the Department of Justice from 1990-1992. He was made Assistant Attorney General in the same office in April 1992. 2005-1464-F 2 The White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Alphabetical File contains a form letter from the White House Office of Presidential Personnel regarding retention of computer records. The WHORM Subject File categories contain executive order drafts, fact sheets, letters, memoranda, notes, press releases, resumes, and routing forms. From subcategories dealing with federal government organizations, foreign affairs, and personnel management, the documents include memoranda regarding a proposed executive order on recording contacts with the Executive Branch; letters from Flanigan at the Office of Legal Counsel giving legal opinions on questions such as making recess appointments, the corporate existence of the Legal Services Corporation, and the constitutionality of various legislation; materials regarding Flanigan's appointment to be Assistant Attorney General; letters recommending Flanigan for positions; and resumes of colleagues that Flanigan forwarded. The Staff and Office Files contain forms, memoranda, and resumes relating to Flanigan's appointment as Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Legal Counsel, Department of Justice. Additionally, there is correspondence from the United States Postal Service regarding lawsuits.
