FOIA Number: 2008-0068-F

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in FOIA 2008-0068-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA 2008-0068-F consists of correspondence tracking sheets, recommendation routing tickets, resume routing tickets, handwritten notes, letters, informational papers, and newspaper clippings. The tracking sheets serve the purpose of routing letters of correspondence; resume routing tickets, recommendation routing tickets, and newspaper clippings to appropriate White House Office staff members. Many of the letters of correspondence are from a variety of public officials on behalf of Russell G. Redenbaugh and 2008-0068-F 1 request the Bush Administration's consideration for Mr. Redenbaugh's appointment to United States Commission on Civil Rights or the Federal Reserve Board. Other letters are direct correspondence from Mr. Redenbaugh and are related to his request to be appointed to either the Commission on Civil Rights or the Federal Reserve Board. Informational papers and newspaper clippings are related to domestic issues, such as civil rights and the American economy. Mr. Redenbaugh was successfully appointed to the Commission on Civil Rights during the Bush Administration.
