Records on White House Office of Issues Analysis - Richard Breeden Files

FOIA Number: 2025-0745-F

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in FOIA 2025-0745-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA 2025-0745-F contains the records of Richard Breeden who served as Executive Office of the White House Office of Issues Analysis from February 2, 1989 to October 7, 1989. (The position was discontinued following his departure.) The Staff and Office Files contain memoranda, correspondence, reports, publications, papers, etc. pertaining to sundry issues under discussion by the President and his advisors such as the U.S. real estate market, border security, child care, the federal budget deficit, the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, the Council on Competitiveness, and the Exxon Valdez oil spill in Alaska.

Processed by: Staff Archivists, July 2025. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.
