FOIA Number: 2012-1796-F

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in FOIA 2012-1796-F are a systematically processed body of documents from the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File category IT. The documents contain memoranda, correspondence, and reports. These materials consist of cover sheets which route other documents as well as correspondence between White House staff, foreign heads of state, representatives from the United Nations Secretariat, the Department of State, state and local government officials, special interest groups, and citizens. The correspondence consists of letters urging the President to support the various United Nations organizations and initiatives, including the U.N. Transition Assistance 2012-1796-F 2 Group in Namibia, international women's rights, foreign relief/ aid, and the U.N. World Summit for Children. Congressional correspondence pertains primarily to recommendations and words of support for candidates to serve as U.S. representatives/ delegates to the United Nations. Also included is correspondence from heads of state requesting support for various candidates to serve as U.N. Secretary General. The Report to Congress on Voting Practices in the United Nations is an annual report which examines votes taken within the U.N. over the previous year and analyses them based upon a country-by-country and regional basis.

Processed by: Staff Archivists, April 2012. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released.
