FOIA Number: 2015-0423-F

Scope and Content Note:

The materials in FOIA 2015-0423-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA 2015-0423-F contains materials related to the Society of Exploration Geophysicists (SEG). The SEG is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the science of geophysics and the education of exploration geophysicists. The Society fosters the expert and ethical practice of geophysics in the exploration and development of natural resources. The Bush Presidential White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File category contains a correspondence tracking worksheet, a letters, and printed material. The White House Correspondence Tracking Worksheet logs in correspondence sent to the White House and lists the subject of the correspondence, routing information, action taken, and disposition. The letter between President Bush and a private citizen contains a request for the president's response to an invitation to speak at the November meeting of the Society of Exploration Geophysicists meeting in Houston. The printed material is a newspaper article about President Bush meeting the band "Nobody's Fool" which played at the VIP party held during the Houston Economic Summit. The Bush Vice Presidential WHORM Subject and Staff and Office Files contain government forms, letters, and a statement. The White House Correspondence Tracking Worksheets log in correspondence sent to the White House and lists subjects of the correspondence, routing information, actions taken, and disposition. The letters are between administration officials, private citizens, and Vice President Bush. They detail an invitation for Vice President Bush to speak at the annual international meeting of the Society of Exploration Geophysicists. The statement is Vice President Bush's remarks at the 1982 special plenary session of the SEG.
