Jeffrey Holmstead Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) Files

This series contains reports comparing the House and Senate versions of the Clean Air Act Amendments and reauthorization of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs. Some of these reports are detailed side-by-side cost analyses prepared by the Bush Administration. Also present are papers by non-governmental organizations, such as the Cato Institute and the Heritage Foundation, on related topics like the Endangered Species Act, the evolution of federal environmental policy, and climate change.

Lee S. Liberman Circuit Court of Appeals Files

The series consists of letters of recommendation, resumes, letters of nomination, press releases, and public mail relating to the selection of judges for the Circuit Court of Appeals. There are also nomination packets containing recommendations to the President, the formal nomination documents, and information about each nominee. Other supporting materials include reports on nominees' judicial decisions, as well as writing samples such as legal opinions. Letters of recommendation and resumes, by far, comprise the bulk of these materials.

Lee S. Liberman David H. Souter Files

This series consists of material related to the appointment of David H. Souter to the Supreme Court. President George H. W. Bush announced his selection of Souter to replace Justice William Brennan on July 24, 1990. Senate Judiciary Committee hearings were held in September 1990, and Souter was sworn-in on October 8, 1990. This series also consists of published articles, reports, hearings, and case summaries, as well as routine correspondence and memoranda from the public, private organizations, Congress, and the Bush administration.
