NAID: 891870

Collection: GB-RTP

Collection Date: April 1979 - October 1992

Scope and Content Note:

This collection consists of a wide array of polling data from Market Opinion Research at the state and local levels for the several presidential primaries and campaigns in which George H. W. Bush was involved. This includes his unsuccessful bid for the Republican presidential nomination in 1980; his election that same year and re-election in 1984 as Ronald Reagan's Vice President; his election as President in 1988; and his unsuccessful re-election bid in 1992. In addition, polling data related to issues of concern to the people of the United States are presented including the public's perceptions of the President's job performance, the general state of the Union, the economy, reactions to candidate/presidential speeches, crime, drugs, health care, education, taxation, the Federal budget deficit, Iran-Contra, and the Persian Gulf crisis and ensuing war. The holdings also contain studies of the media treatment of President Bush, debate preparation materials, reports on issues of local importance throughout the United States, talking points for Republican operatives, and campaign trip schedules for President George H. W. Bush and Vice President Dan Quayle.

1988 Presidential Campaign State Polls (Statewides) Files

This series contains questionnaires conducted by the campaign (Bush-Quayle '88, George Bush for President, Inc., Republican National Committee, and Market Opinion Research) in the campaign's target/priority states. The questionnaires primarily consisted of numerous questions about the candidates, issues, and local or state public figures. This series consists of regular, or stand alone, statewides where all the interviews, somewhere between 400 and 800 depending on the state, are carried out over a period of 2 or 3 days.

Americans Talk Security Surveys

Americans Talk Security, founded in 1987 by Dr. Alan F. Kay, was a bipartisan public opinion research project, jointly conducted by Market Opinion Research, The Daniel Yankelovich Group, and Marttila & Kiley, that focused on national and international security. Some of the topics covered in this project included: U.S.-Soviet relations, U.S. foreign aid, public evaluation of Pentagon waste, future arms reduction agreements, post-Summit perceptions, U.S. drug problem, U.S. policy to Central America, and viewing the world on the eve on Moscow Summit.
